CHURCH NEWS

Wesley Chapel Church

We are glad to announce the re-opening of the Old Wesley Chapel Church for advancement of God's Kingdom. We sincerely believe that the opening of this old church will bring much fellowship to those that have come to worship in the past. We also believe and are sincerely praying that the church and its spiritual influence will not only guide those that are saved, but those that have not been saved to the saving knowledge of Christ. We invite all who may want to come and worship in Spirit and truth and believe in a New Testament Church to come and help us in a great cause. Our services will be held each Sunday beginning at 3 o'clock. There will also be prayer service Saturday night, Sept. 10, at 7:30. Watch this paper for announcements of different speakers.

WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD

The Wesleyan Service Guild met Monday evening, Sept. 5, at the home of Mrs. Josephine Morris.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. Frances Kern, and the Guild Hymn was sung by the group.

Mrs. Cleo Coleman led the devotional and introduced to us our Spiritual Life study book for the year, entitled "The Five Spiritual Classics," which she will begin teaching next month.

A most interesting program, "Paying the Price of Christian Discipleship," was brought to the group by Mrs. Lillian Martin, leader, Miss Sallie Lee Campbell and Mrs. Katie Martin. The program gave us a clear picture of the destruction and hardships that have come to the people of Korea since the conflict began there June 25, 1950.

Miss Campbell, speaking as Miss Pak, a Korean, told of her experiences during this time of her life and how she rebelled against God because of the things that happened to her. On hearing a minister say that our troubles can bring us closer to God, she felt the urge to turn again to Him and found joy in serving others.

Mrs. Martin, speaking as Mrs. Syang, the wife of Dr. J. S. Syang, told how her husband disappeared, thought to have been taken by the Communists, and how she worked on though grieving for her husband. She helped to organize the women and this work with others helped her. She says she is always working and that she abounds in the work of the Lord, since she knows that her labor is not in vain in the Lord.

During the business session the report of the Executive Meeting which was held at Centenary Church, Lynchburg, on August 13, was given by Mrs. Frances Kern, who also announced a District Dinner meeting would be held on Sept. 20 at 6:30 p. m. at Centenary Church.

Hazel Moon Circle To Meet

The Hazel Moon Circle of W.M.U. of Liberty Baptist Church will meet Monday night, Sept. 12, at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. "Ted" Carter. All members are urged to be present.

MITCHELL - HARVEY

The wedding of Miss Roberta Harvey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harvey, and Theodore LeVonn Mitchell, son of Mrs. Vernell Mitchell, all of Appomattox, took place Friday evening, August 26, in the Evergreen Baptist Church at 7:30 o'clock. The double ring ceermony was performed by the uncle of the bridegroom, the Rev. O. G. Burnette, pastor of a field of churches in Gloucester County.

Cecil Hillsman, organist, and Raymond Wingfield, vocalist, provided the music.

The atiar was decorated with ferns and white gladioli and asters, and lighted by candelabra.

Given in marriage by her brother, Henry Harvey, the bride wore a white eyelet embroidered organdie dress with bouffant skirt. The cap, to which the finger tip illusion veil was attached, was rimmed in pearls and the bride wore a matching pearl necklace. She carried a white prayerbook topped with orchids.

Miss Dorothy Ann Paulette was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of green net over taffeta, and carried yellow roses and chrysanthemums. Miss Betty Mitchell, the bridesmaid, wore a balelrina length dress of yellow net over taffeta and also carried yellow roses and chrysanthemums.

Vernell Mitchell, the bridegroom's father, was his best man. Ushers were Lewis Harvey and Bobby Mitchell.

After a reception held in the social hall of the church, the couple left on their honeymoon. On their return they will make their home in Lynchburg.

For traveling the bride wore a plaid suit with cinnamon accessories, and added an orchnid from her bouquet.
